

Epilepsy Newfoundland and Labrador

Epilepsy NL Family Scholarship Criteria

The Epilepsy NL Family Scholarship, valued at $1000 is awarded to a student who has a family member diagnosed with epilepsy, and currently in, or about to enter, their first year of Post Secondary studies.

Field of Study: Any post-secondary institution (university, community college, private college, etc)

Value of Scholarship: One thousand dollars ($1,000.00) non-renewable

Number of Scholarships: One (1)

Qualifications: Applicants must:

- have a family member diagnosed with epilepsy,
- be a member in good standing of Epilepsy NL at the time of application. Becoming a member is easy - applications are available at www.epilepsynl.com.
- submit a copy of their most recent transcript or marks with their application.

Evaluations will be based on a combination of the applicant's grades, extracurricular activities, and financial need.

Current board or staff members are not eligible to apply for scholarships. Former board or staff members and/or their family members can apply for scholarships if they have been out of the service of Epilepsy Newfoundland and Labrador for two years. This two year period will be calculated as two years prior to the scholarship award date.

Obligations: Award holders must be prepared to enter or be currently enrolled in a post-secondary training institution in the academic year of application.

The award holder must submit to Epilepsy Newfoundland and Labrador confirmation of admission or enrollment to the training institution as soon as possible after the selection, but no later than January 15th of the academic year.

Where Tenable: This scholarship is tenable at any post-secondary institution in Canada or the United States.

Closing Date: Scholarship applications must be received by Epilepsy Newfoundland and Labrador no later than November 1st of the academic year.

Award: This award will be paid directly to the successful applicant.

Notification of award will be made no later than November 15th. The successful applicant should be available in person to receive their award at a formal presentation if possible.

For scholarship consideration, please forward application, along with a copy of your most recent academic transcript or marks to:
